

2021: a year of extraordinary impact on vaccinology

Day One April 27 2021 13.00 – 19.00 CET

Title	Session Overview
Keynote lecture	Our headline presentation
The COVID-19 vaccine rollout experience, a world tour	Sharing best practices and challenges from around the world
Adult vaccination: not another casualty of the pandemic?	Understanding the challenges of adult vaccination, and a look at some solutions
Vaccine confidence	How to restore trust, especially in times of uncertainty
WHO Immunization agenda 2030 - reach all for a lifetime	Everyone, everywhere, at every age should benefit from vaccines

Vaccinology in practice today, and tomorrow

Day Two April 28 2021 13.00 – 19.00 CET

Title	Session Overview
Keynote lecture	Our headline presentation
The attributes of current and new vaccine technologies	Understanding the fast-evolving scientific area of vaccine technologies
COVID-19: different perspectives	Views on disease transmission, children, and maternal immunisation
A view into the future of infectious disease prevention	Understanding future opportunities and challenges
Vaccine questions on your mind: ask the experts	Receive an answer to all your questions around vaccinology